

For which switching rate per minute are Barksdale pressure switches designed?

Depending on the type of construction (electronic or mechanical) the devices are designed for 20 to 6000 switching operations per minute.